The proposed settlement does not settle any specific points within the anti-trust judgment..

Question: How much of embarrassment for the US DOJ would it be if the settlement in Europe under their laws succeeds to redress Microsoft's Monopolistic practices where the US DOJ fails in obligation to the US Public's trust?

No matter what settlement is implemented, remember this..Worldwide computer users, software developers, hardware vendors, software vendors, and etc will remember where you failed and some of us happen to vote upon those lines in the next round of up coming elections in the US..
